

PERMISSION FORM

This permission form must be completed by the adult responsible for each comic swap group. A comics swap group could be a comics club, a school class, a library group, a family group... all sorts of groups are welcome to take part. Each comics swap group must be formed of multiple children and at least one responsible adult.

Title of your comic. This must be a comic that your comic swap group has made, not a comic made by someone else
Only comics suitable for readers of all ages can be included in this swap. If in doubt, think whether you'd be happy for a 6 year old to be given this comic. Please tick to show that you consider your comic to be suitable for readers of all ages
Name of your comic swap group
Name of the adult responsible for your comic swap group
Responsible Adult's email address
Responsible Adult's phone number
Responsible Adult's postal address (currently UK only - but if you're based in another country please contact us). This is the address to which we'll post your swapped comics
Signature of Responsible Adult

Please DO NOT send us any money. You pay postage costs to send your 6 comics (6 copies of the same comic) to Seven Stories: The National Centre for Children's Books. We pay postage to send 5 comics back to each comics swap group.

The sixth comic will become part of the Comic Swap library, to encourage and inspire more children to make and swap comics. This Comic Swap library may be publicly available within Seven Stories and in touring venues. Images of comics in the Comic Swap library will be shared on the Comics Swap website and twitter (with credits to the comics clubs involved), and images may also be shared online and in print by Seven Stories.
